RE: EC regulation 1907/2006 (REACH)

Dear Sir or Madam:

Automated Packaging Systems supplies you with packaging in the form of polyethylene bags. As such these bags meet the definition of an article under the REACH regulations. Furthermore no component of the bags is intended to be released during normal and reasonably foreseeable conditions of use. Substances of Very High Concern identified in the initial list of 16 substances are not used in the manufacture of or intentionally added to our plastic bag products.

Sincerely:
